Next sale of store cattle, cows & calves on MONDAY 6th APRIL 2020

We at BRYNCIR AUCTION CENTRE are taking the Coronavirus outbreak very seriously and along with the Livestock Auctioneers Association are monitoring guidelines and recommendations being made by the chief Medical officer. We as Auctioneers are a vital element of the food supply chain and are implementing responsible measures to contain the outbreak. There is currently NO restrictions on the operation of Livestock Market, however we respectfully request that ONLY buyers, sellers and Livestock Transporters attend our auction and NOT bring family members or children with them. The General Public are also asked NOT to attend and stay away from the auction. Bryncir Auction Centre will be adopting this policy with staff members policing who enters the Auction site. We also request that anyone feeling unwell or showing symptoms of Coronavirus/COVID 19 does NOT attend the market. Good hygiene is paramount for those that do attend the market, we ask that you take all necessary precautions recommended by Public Health Wales before arriving and make use of the hand washing/sanitising facilities at the market. CATERING: As of 19th March 2020 a limited takeaway service will be provided during our store cattle sales. There will be NO catering on Wednesday Primestock sales until further notice.
