Busy and bustling day yesterday as Bryncir Livestock Market continues to flourish, with trade strengthening week on week and a strong entry of stock to suit every buyer, numerous familiar and new faces present.

The day kicked off with the calves – a solid entry this week and firm prices, topped by £430 paid to I J Evans of Ty'n Rhos. Moving on to the Cows and Calves, fourth consignment of cows from I E Griffith, Mynydd Ednyfed sold at buoyant levels, with two outfits (one Limousin and one Welsh Black) reaching £3,050.

Store cattle sustained the momentum, as demand for heifers rose sharply this week with over 80 of them passing the £2,000 mark. Steers also saw rising figures, posting a very respectable average of £2,015, and 48 head selling between £2,200 and £2,480.

A larger entry of store lambs this week—predominantly Welsh mountain types—achieved a top price of £92. Breeding Ewes likewise met strong demand, with the best lots to £160 and Welsh Ewes to £90.
