♦ Fat lambs met a stronger trade overall this week, with continental cross types and medium to standard weights selling particularly well. Lighter and hill-bred lambs proved more difficult to place this week. Cull ewes and rams once again sold to a firm trade, reaching a top price of £188. Cull cows and older cattle attracted very good prices, with a notable improvement on last week's rates. An impressive average of 291ppk and just shy of the £2,000 mark.
